One day, Mac and Tosh were reading, and Billy came along. "Good Morning, Billy," Tosh said. "You look upset," Mac said.

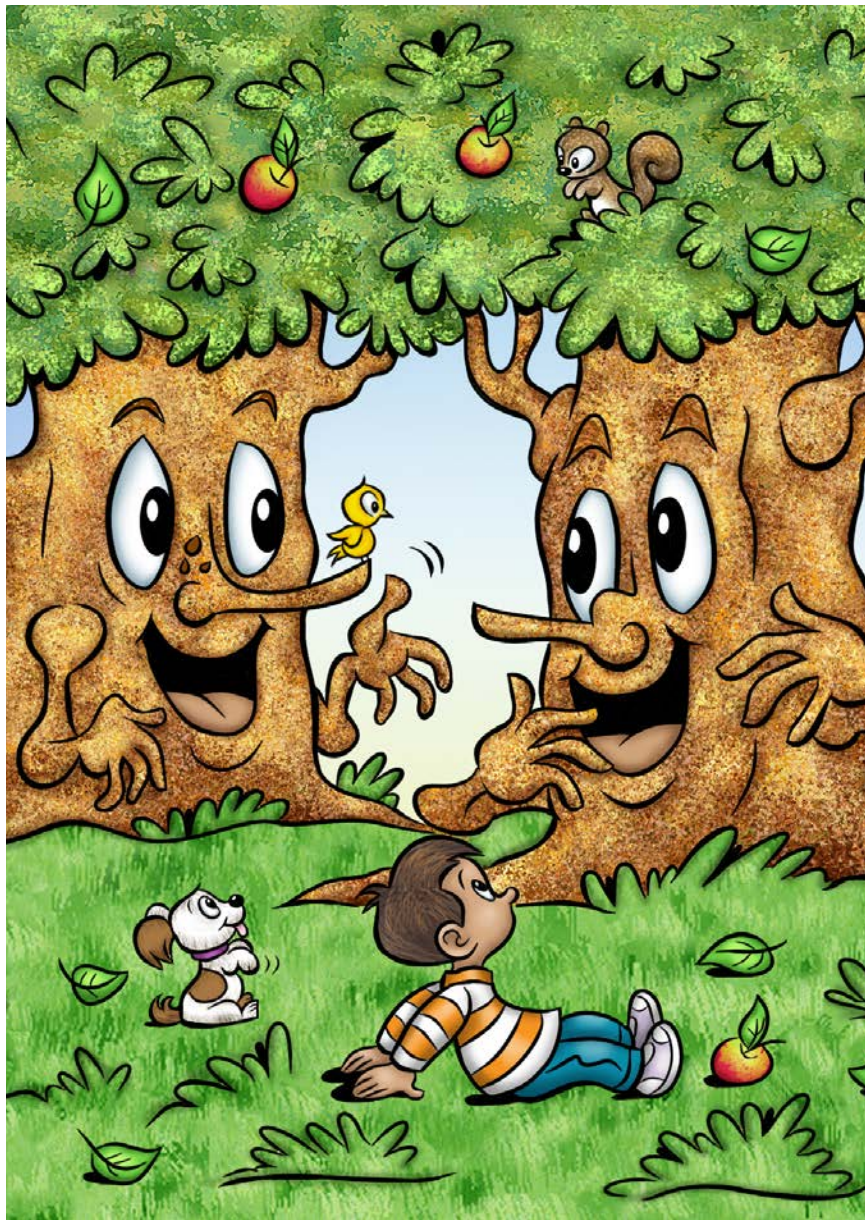

"My bike is broken!" Billy said. "Oh no!" Tosh replied.

"I don't have enough money to get it fixed," Billy sighed. Tosh said, "Mac, we must help Billy fix his bike."

"Don't be upset, Billy, I have an idea," Mac said.

“We can have a bake sale,”
he added.

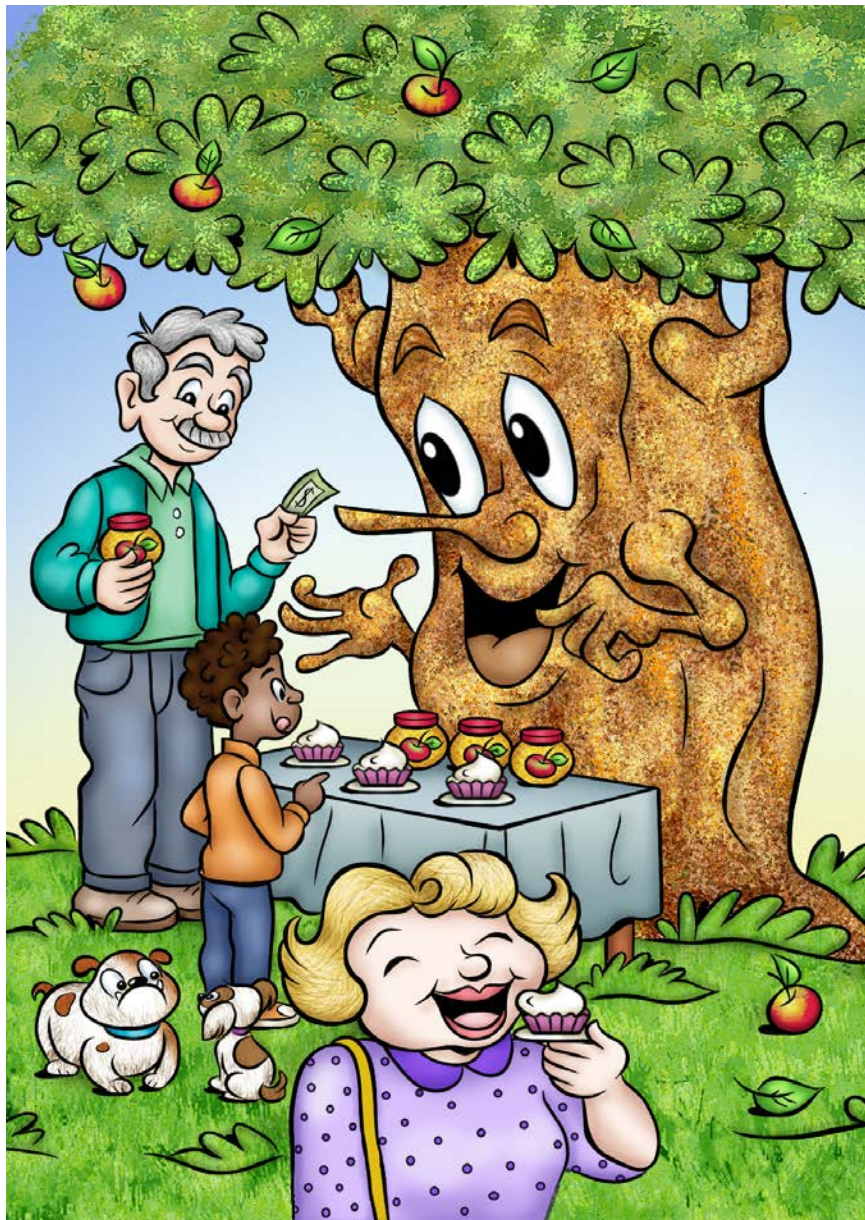

Mac started making signs.
Mac put the signs up
all over town.

Tosh started picking apples
and baking.
Tosh baked many yummy
apple treats.

People bought apple pies.
People bought applesauce.

People bought apple jams.
People bought apple tarts.

Soon, they had enough money
for Billy to fix his bike.
“Thanks, Mac and Tosh,” Billy said.
“Apples rule!” he added.
