Did you know that a book
can be a time machine?
It can also be a spaceship
or a magic doorway.

When I read science fiction,
I explore distant planets.

When I read fantasy,
I go to school to learn magic.

When I read history,
I travel back in time.

When I read an informational book, I learn new facts.

When I read a biography, I learn about a person's life.

When I read a mystery,
I play at being a detective.

When I read fiction,
I lose myself in a story.

When I read an autobiography,
I hear someone tell his or her own story.

Books let me experience
new things without ever leaving my room!
