

Name _____

Tia is unhappy.

Example:

Look Again • Level J • 1

Zena is imaginative.

Example:

_____ is _____.

Example:

Skill: Analyze Character

Instructions: In the first section, have students record one example from the story of Tia being unhappy. In the second section, have students record an example of Zena being imaginative. In the last section, have students choose a character and a character trait that describes her. Then, write one example from the story of the character showing that trait.